10 am

Terre Haute Labor History Tour (Eugene V. Debs Historic Home and Museum, 451 N. 8th Street, Terre Haute, IN 47803) We continue to offer a Labor History Tour of Terre Haute the afternoon of the banquet. The tour will be led by Debs Foundation board member Timothy Kelley. This tour is free, but reservations are required and limited to the first 13 people.

11:30 am

Debs Graveside Ceremony (Highland Lawn Cemetery, 4420 Wabash Ave, Terre Haute, IN 47803) Join us in a ceremony to honor Eugene and Kate Debs at the conclusion of the Labor History tour, but all are welcome to join.

12 noon

Rededication of the Debs Birthplace Monument (N. 4th St, ½ block south of Chestnut, Terre Haute) We will be re-dedicating the marker denoting the location of Eugene V. Debs' birthplace on North 4th Street, which was removed for construction of the new CHHS building and is being returned to its original location. This event is free and open to the public.

2 pm

Documentary Film Screening (ISU Cunningham Memorial Library, Events Area) "At the River I Stand" an outstanding, award winning documentary film that traces the first two months of the 1968 sanitation workers strike in Memphis, Tennessee will be shown. The film examines the connection between economics and civil rights and highlights the debates between leaders over tactics and strategies for creating social change.

The film is an hour and will be followed by the comments of Bill Lucy and a question and answer session will allow discussion with the audience. This event is free and open to the public. The archives of the Debs Collection will be open after the screening.

6 pm

Social hour preceding the annual banquet. (Sycamore Banquet Center, 218 N. 6th Street, Terre Haute)

7 pm

Banquet honoring 2018 Debs award recipient William "Bill" Lucy. The award will be presented by 2012 award winner, Clayola Brown.
